

the north sydney 11 MAY-2 JUNE 2024 ART PRIZE

The 2024 North Sydney Art Prize opens Saturday 11 May 2024 and runs until 2 June 2024 at the Coal Loader Centre for Sustainability

Exhibition Opening hours

Wednesday - Friday 10am-3pm,
Saturdays and Sundays 10am-4pm

North Sydney Council's biennial art prize at the Coal Loader Centre for Sustainability in Waverton features over 90 Australian artists. Selected artworks respond to a curatorial theme addressing local and global concerns including sustainability, climate action, and consumer culture. The diverse selection includes printmaking, drawing, painting, photography, sculptures, textiles, new media, and site-specific installations displayed throughout the Centre's unique post-industrial setting including the subterranean tunnels and chambers.

In addition to the exhibition there will be a series of artist talks, workshops, and creative activities. Read on to find out what's on.

Image Sandra Pitkin 'Identity's Imprint' [detail] 2022 North Sydney Art Prize